FIGHTING THE RUM INTEREST.

WORK OF REPORM CLUBS AND OTHER SOCIETIES-THE MOVEMENT IN PRINCETON.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Rloomfield, N. J., held a meeting on Thursday, four hours in length. Mrs. Denby, of Montclair, gave an interesting Bible reading. Mrs. Brown, of New-York, spoke of "The fruit of the lips." Mrs. Hammer, of Newark, addressed words of cheer to the Temperance workers of Bloomfield. The entire meeting was enthusiastic and interesting. The Reform Club is in possession of its new hall. Charles W. Maxtield gave an address at the meeting last evening. The withdrawal of opposition to the granting of several liceuses by the Newark Court on Thursday, has caused a good deal of feeling and comment. It is charged in the case of one of the applicants so favored that personal and business reasons influenced the temperance workers who withdrew their opposition. Several of the successful applicants for liceuse celebrated their victory by giving free liquor to their patrons. THE MOVEMENT IN PRINCETON.

enced the temperance workers who withdrew their opposition. Several of the successful applicants for Breense celebrated their victory by giving free liquor to their patrons.

The Plainfield Reform Club at its meeting on Tuesday evening received invitations from Crawford, Scotch Plains and Rahway to send delegations to these places and hold temperance meetings. The club will send delegations to Scotch Plains and Crawford to-morrow evening and to Rahway on Wednesday evening. The one topic of conversation in Princeton at present is temperance. A large public meeting was held in the Second Presbyterian Church on Thursday night, one object being to consider what measures should be taken for the suppression of intemperance. Addresses were made by Dean Murray, Dr. Macloskie, Dr. McLaren, Dr. Duffield, John F. Hageman, the Rey. John Miller, Mr. Harlan and others. There are eight places liceased in Princeton, and next month is the usual time for the Common Council to grant liceases for another year. Many favor prohibition and others restriction. A prohibition petition for signers will be laid before the next council. At the last election there were no gains for either side, leaving the general result the same as last year. The prohibition petition was circulated for signers yesterday.

The second annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of New-Jersey will be held in Glassboro on Weinesday and Thursday. Mabee and English have organized a Reform Club at Beverly. It has now 100 members, some of whom were confirmed drunkards. The meetings have been crowded. Mabse and English are holding meetings at Lambertville. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Salem has rented a half, and is furnishing it with headquarters where meetings will be held every Wednesday. The trustees of the Reformed Men's flome of Camden are looking for a new sile with a view to the removal of their institution. It is estimated that 600 incharts where meetings will be held every Wednesday. The trustees of the Reformed Men's flome of have kept open on Sunday.

UNEXPLAINED ATTACK ON LONG ISLAND. UNEXPLAINED ATTACK ON LONG ISLAND. A few mornings since Abram Nafis, residing on Thompson-ave, between Woodside and Winfield, L. L. heard a noise on his front stoop at an early hour, add on going to the door he discovered his son Burr, who is twenty-three years of age, lying on the stoop in an unconscious condition. He was covered with blood and dirt, and his head and body were badly braised, but no bones were broken Medical and was summoned and after several hours he regained consciousness sufficiently to converse with his friends, but his mined as to how he came by his injuries was a blank, and still remains so. He had been to New-York and returned by the miduight train, getting off at Woodside. He remembers leaving the train and starting for home. His watch and money were ease, but a small bex that he carried in his hand containing candy is missing, and it is believed that he was followed from the train by some person and assaulted, believing that the box contained valuables. It is probable that when he fully recovers he will be able to give particulars as to how he came by his injuries.

THE DISAPPEARANCE OF MRS. WARDELL The disappearance of Mrs. Sophia H. Wardell of wife of Major Edward Wardell, of Long Branch or gauged some excitement. She left home or The disappearance of Mrs. Solidar A. Archick the wife of Major Loward Wardell, of Long Branch, has emised some exertement. She left home on Threshay moraing to do some shopping, and in the atterneon she took a train of the Central Railroad of New-Jersey at Branchport for New-York. No trace can be found of her after she landed at the foot of Laberty-st. In two letters written by her, which were found in a small satchel at her house, she announced her intention of committing suicide. Ten years ago, shortly after the birth of a daughter, Mrs. Wardell wandered away from her home while labering under temporary abstration of mind. She walked several miles in a snow storm and then took a train to Philadelphia, where she attempted to secure a place as governess. When found by her friends she soon recovered control of her mental families. From that time she exhibited no symptoms of insanity. She is tall, well formed, and has dark brown hair and gray eyes. There is a small nucle on her left cheek near the corner of her mouth. Major Wardell, her bushand, is the Long Branch representative of the Board of Underwriters and the Merritt Coast Wrecking Organization.

The Greenbackers of Essex County have elected twenty-eight delegates to their State Convention on April 23 at Trenton.

Public sentiment is divided on two propositions regarding street improvements. One of these is for the issue of short-time bonds for $250,000 to be used in paving and repaving streets. A bill for the purpose is now pending in the Legislature and it is charged that the intent of the bill is to give the Democrats who will have control of the funds, material to use in the fall elections. The second proposition, which is embedded in an ordinance now before Council is that the Horse Car Railroad companies shall be released from the obligation to pave and keep in under the street between their tracks and that the companies shall waive their exartered right of tax exemption. The tax would give about nine or ten thousand dollars annually to the city.

RUSKIN'S ADVICE TO PICTURE BUYERS.

[From an Essay.]

Never buy a copy of a picture. All copies are bad, because no painter who is worth a straw ever will copy. He will make a study of a picture he likes for his own use in his own way, but he won't and can't copy; and whenever you buy a copy you buy so much untenderstanding of the original, and encourage a duil person in following a business he is not lift for, beside increasing ullimately chances of mixtake and imposture. You may, in fact, modifer yourself as having purchased a certain quantity disseminating them.
